

Community Engagement and Outreach Officer

Part-time | 18-month contract (22.5 per week, £29,250 pro rata, actual £17,550)

Location: The Rifles Berkshire and Wiltshire Museum, Salisbury

Are you passionate about people, history, and making a difference in your community? Join The Rifles Berkshire and Wiltshire Museum as our Community Engagement and Outreach Officer — a dynamic role focused on building meaningful connections between the museum and the diverse communities we serve.

You'll develop exciting educational programs, interactive garden trails, and vibrant temporary exhibitions. From school groups and cadets to veterans and senior citizens, you'll engage a wide audience and help bring the museum's collections and outdoor spaces to life.

You'll also coordinate volunteers, support sustainable use of the gardens, and collaborate on events that celebrate local stories and shared heritage.

What We're Looking For:

- Experience in community outreach, education, or museum engagement
- Strong communication, planning, and people skills
- A creative approach to engagement across ages and backgrounds
- An interest in history and the environment

Why Join Us?

- Flexible working arrangements
- Supportive, purpose-driven team
- A real chance to make an impact in your community

 Apply now: Send your CV, cover letter, and examples of past outreach work to curator@thewardrobe.org.uk. Tell us how you'd help make our museum a welcoming hub for learning, stories, and sustainability.
